A HISTORICAL SKETCH

Greetings from PIERRE PAUL PUBLIC SCHOOL fraternity!!

Pierre Paul Public School nurtures the vision of its founder Father Pierre Paul Blanck, a visionary leader whose tireless striving to fulfill the Divine Will blossomed into a new congregation on March 3, 1845, Sisters of St. Joseph of Saint Marc (SJSJ). SJSJ has carved a niche for them in the educational history of India. The institutions managed by SJSJ stand out, many have evolved into centres of excellence.

The Congregation has its origin in 1845 at Saint-Marc in the region of Alsace, France. Fr. Pierre Paul Blanck is the founder of the Congregation of Sisters of St. Joseph of Saint-Marc. He felt the need of a religious Congregation for persons who have more preference for prayer and solitude. Perpetual Adoration of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament is central to our spirituality and education of young minds and hearts as well as medical care of the poor and the vulnerable are our principal aims.

Our Congregation is spread out in different countries such as France, Germany, America, Rome, Ukraine, Switzerland, Philippines and India.
